The cable-cars may win soon be settled.

The strengthening of the Lick at Cooper has been completed.

Texas, Mr. McKinney's pre-ark, was the Democrat last yesterday.

Ex-Secretary [illegible] of this city, declares he positively failed yesterday.

Mr. Blaine will address the Liberal Republicans next Friday night.

Ex-W. Lyman gave [illegible] assistance yesterday to the boulder boat yesterday.

Secretary Elkins left the city last night on his progress tour around the world.

Surveys of the Erie [illegible] have resulted as a private matter for Illinois men.

The investigation by the Scots in Manassas gate is quite widespread than at first supposed.

The Czar and Czarina yesterday witnessed the launching of the new Russian cruiser [illegible].

It has been decided by the Pope that there is no ground for Papal interference with the Knights of Labor question.

C. H. Reed has sold to C. E. Culverhouse [illegible] of land on Central Park avenue, near Thirty-sixth street, over $30,000 being paid.

Mrs. Francis, the special representative of the Czar in Ireland, has made a report of his investigations and will shortly return to Russia.

A lawsuit is to commence in Washington over the President intends to appoint the widow of Gen. W. S. Hancock Postmaster of San Francisco (Cal.).

A street-car strike in St. Louis that have Chicago detectives are trying to fan the flame[illegible] a tragic which to suppose to [illegible] on hand.

One hundred millionaires from all sources of foreign revenue for the fiscal year just ended were $10,000,000, or $1,000,000 more than the collections of the previous year.

The Indian Rights [illegible] Association that Congressman [illegible] D. C. Oilton has even not apparently gained the administration to interest by the Postmaster-General's Washington friends to be [illegible].

The Council will wisely in naming the water for naming the old tunnels. That work can and should proceed at the same time that the new tunnels are being constructed.

Lyon Chicken Sweetman has resigned as Junior Lord of the Admiralty because of a recent arrest up in connection with the [illegible] scandal, resulting at Aylesbury last Saturday.

France is crowded with strangers to the Chicago Republican State Convention. The Tribune's correspondent states that four men, one of them in favor of Blaine for President. The remaining candidate would support Harrison.

Kentucky Democrats will meet in State convention at Baltimore today. There is good local feeling between the various factions, and Mr. Gorman and his friends have not been able as a county for many, to do as the state. Candidates for Governor, Attorney-General, and Treasurer will be nominated.

A Salt Lake [illegible] journal is about to be established in London by Lord Walter[illegible] and other wealthy magnates of the party. It will be an evening paper, the price a half-penny (one cent). Mr. T. T. [illegible], M. P., formerly Gladstone's secretary, is to be the editor. What with the correspondence for American and British papers and for the home and outside, Gladstone must be a busy man.

By the way, Sheriff Matson has not forgotten about the case of Sarah Bobbs, who pleaded of having given aid and comfort to Jury-duty. What has been done about the matter, Mr. Sheriff? Does not the term[illegible] prescribe? What will the result be [illegible]? Bobbs's original sentence was one week, and [illegible] and satisfactory. He ought to be put on the county payroll. He ought to be [illegible] Lafayette. He was would not be [illegible] to his sentence concerning the escape of Lafayette.

It would be a good thing to put by themselves the different grades of ore which are coming in this city and have the mill to get on be quick. The only question is to be paid to the feasibility of doing it, with so much old grade to show at the beginning of a new year. It is for the [illegible] to see if such a thing is practic. Suppose the Board of Trade should ask them about it, and in the event of an affirmative answer [illegible] to do. The proposed change would be worth a great many thousands of dollars to the prosperous trade of the city as well as to the farmers of the West.

Lynn is doubtful on the side of the Chief[illegible] Arthur. The leader of the Tories is showing a tendency to the Foreign party but favors a war on Germany. Lloyd-George, the boy for the partial reduction in the Bright and Gallagher division and for compensation to the farmers and tenants for [illegible] improvements. Parnell is [illegible] with delegates to the Irish Nationalist Convention to be held in Dublin, Aug. 15. The Convention is evening here, and don't you forget it at every stone it.

SHERIFF AND THE VICE.

Chicago is no longer the practical metropolis. The definitive business is carried on, if not [illegible], upon the sly and in small degree. It is not a business promoted by police sanction or the ardors of the best of the City Government. The form of gaming-[illegible] saloons—was put under the ban of severe legislative condemnation in the last General Assembly, so far as corporate ordinances can [illegible], but the saloonkeeper wants to favor of [illegible] made that legislation worse than [illegible] of the Council generally have done nothing to the matter the Mayor would probably have cleared out the poker-rooms [illegible] of the most town by the the chief gambling places in the city. The excellent [illegible] in the new police force is by favor of [illegible] parlor to a crowd known of notorious gambling or sort there. The racing season has closed at Chicago and another began, and as it was to start in it is not in the [illegible] some sport a necessary to gambling. The eminently respectable gentlemen who are maintaining [illegible] parlor are really [illegible] gambling [illegible] Driven out by the Mayor, they [illegible] the city, [illegible] their escape [illegible] upon [illegible]. Going now to the Democratic Council the driving parlor, and the [illegible] for gaming there have [illegible] Indigents. Sheriff Alby was a little more accessible, but the difference is not enough to account so much.

Some of the citizens who petitioned the Legislature to allow gambling on the turf at last instance to acknowledge that they did not [illegible] the evil success of the Legislature there should be no ordering of that wrong, and in order to decree that result it is important to avoid [illegible] to the evil in [illegible]. But it is necessary to wait for the Thirty-sixth Council [illegible] to [illegible] what is quite within the control of the authorities [illegible] the parlor? If the [illegible] agree with a firm determination, will all doors upon [illegible] and everything that can urge and the present degree and so the public [illegible] [illegible]. So long as a regular place of amusement, capable of accommodating an [illegible] [illegible] of people, is run by responsible [illegible] as a gambling-house, Major Sheriff cannot and [illegible] the range of gaming. Those citizens [illegible] to suppress, or [illegible], to be in partnership with gamesters, and it is very [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The Irish Proclamation—Progress of the Land Bill—Sir Charles Russell's Speech of Object and His Resolution—Sickening with the Land Bill—Death from Fever—Trouble's Due Reported—Miscellaneous Intelligence from Over the Sea.

LONDON, July 26.—Under the terms of Mr. Gladstone, the Parnellites have abandoned their intention to move an adjournment for the purpose of challenging the Government with reference to the Irish proclamations. The Ministers deny any want to interfere with the progress of the Land bill if the Government declares to abuse the clause in accordance with Tuesday's vote. The action of the Irish Executive with the object of the Land bill has been active, and the return to this session seems to be the evening settlement of the session. The Government proposes to dispose of the bill providing for local option (Scotland) Monday, to dispose of the Irish bill Tuesday, and to be considered on Thursday, and to be considered on Friday, and to be considered on Saturday, and to be considered on Sunday, and to be considered on Monday, and to be considered on Tuesday, and to be considered on Wedn

COMPARATIVE WORTH OF BAKING POWDERS.

REPORTS OF GOVERNMENT CHEMISTS

As to Purity and Wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder.

"The Royal Baking Powder is composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substances. C. A. Lovering, Ph. D."

"It is a scientific fact that the Royal Baking Powder is unobjectionable. C. A. Mott, Ph. D."

"The chemical tests to which I have submitted the Royal Baking Powder prove it perfectly healthful, and free from every deleterious substance. Wm. McMurtrie, M. D., Ph. D."

NOTE.—The above Diagram illustrates the comparative merits of various Baking Powders, as shown by chemical analysis and experiments made by Prof. Schedler. A pound can of each powder was taken, the total leavening power or volume in each can calculated, the result being as indicated. This practical test the world by Prof. Schedler only proves what every observant consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by practical experience, that while it costs a few cents per pound more than ordinary kinds, it is far more economical, and, besides, affords the advantage of better work. A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any intelligent person of these facts.

"While the diagram shows some of the strong powders to be of a higher degree of strength than others powders named above, it must be remembered that many of these powders contain alum, which is a cheap substance, and in the hands of unscrupulous manufacturers, who make high grade cream of tartar powders, are sold as pure and wholesome."

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

THE LAUGHING FAMILY.

THE VERY PECULIAR AFFLICTION OF SOME NEW JERSEY PEOPLE.

Laughing to Church and at All the Times and Places—The Malady Continually Breaking Out—Scientific and Unscientific Men Unable to Reach Out an Hand to Sufferers There and Them—Rubbed Him Roughneck.

New York Letter in St. Louis Globe-Democrat: The story of Jersey's laughing family is certainly one of the oldest that has ever reached the ears of a correspondent. That a family with such a peculiar malady and one so remarkably interesting to the medical profession, should have lived so long in a State proud with prominent citizens acquiring wealth and without getting into the newspapers, excited to a total and remote way years ago, in Southern Jersey. The family dwells in a large, substantial house not far from the Delaware River, in Burlington County. The father and sons are farmers, are prosperous and well to do. The entire family are chronic laughers, having an affection of the muscles of the mouth and throat that compels them to give vent to spasmodic outbursts of mirth whenever they feel excited. The malady first appeared in the father about a dozen years ago. He was usually a very quiet man, minding his own business and attending to his crops without much words. He was seized at the dinner table one day in the spring of the year, without cause apparent to himself or any one else, and not wishing to say of the conversation which the other members of the family were carrying on. Suddenly, without any cause, he burst into a loud fit of laughter so extremely different from the ordinary comment that all were astonished to a man. When asked what was the cause of his sudden exclusion, he could no more, but continued his merriment. Some of the boys thought he had indigestion and assumed that the family had to do with it, but after a few days of laughing spells, which would last for hours, and would take him at the most unexpected times, he was taken to a physician, who pronounced his case hysteria. He was treated for that, but without success. The laughing spells continued, and he was finally taken to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for several months. He was then discharged as cured, but in a few days after his return home he was seized with another fit of laughing, which lasted for hours, and which he could not control. He was then taken to a physician in Philadelphia
